Dear Madam

Altho' ever feeling the same deep & grateful interest in your State & welfare I have refrained from intruding upon your retirement by inquiry - considering particularly that in addition to the increase of years you must have so great care & concern for your poor afflicted Ireland for which we feel as we well may the deepest sympathy & interest. Mr. Stul-lman was here lately pleading the cause and telling of its suffering, and I hope has excited desirable interest — I do not know that any thing could have induced me to trouble your Ladyship with a letter except the request of Bishop Chase, who has again come to England on behalf of another

but Spiritually destitute regions - Such success as he had for Ohio we cannot hope for, but a little aid <sup>will</sup> ~~will~~ I am sure be gratefully, as it will as I think be mercifully given - but I presume not to say more, and have said to him that I should rather visit & advise his administration a few lines himself by your Lady ships - Mr. Hoar & I & family are I thank God! well and I heard that the dear Baveller family were

So a few days since - My dear Sister in law had the great trial of losing her beloved & only child last May.
She was just grown to woman.
She has borne the affliction as a true Christian - with earnest humble prayers for your comfort I am ever Dear Madam y<sup>r</sup> ob<sup>d</sup>g<sup>t</sup> Servant
